We had a little argument but
I hope that over with and
I was really sorry about that
I told you what ever you called it

Don,
Thank for writing
that in my annual book
I thought that know odd would respect me after that Friday night. I even lost my own respect for a little while. I will be glad and I will love going with you sometimes but
you have to ask me first
Best wishes and loads
of good luck to a gal
that probably needs it
as much as I do.

Like you always

The American Creed

"I believe in the United States as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I, therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

The Home Ec. living room affords a comfortable setting for meetings and entertaining.

Spacious and well equipped, the library invites students to visit often for study and learning.

Our Perspective:

We hope to capture and hold in your memories the highlights of our first year in the new Canyon High School. Surprised and fascinated by the spacious and comfortable building, we entered school late last August. Now the Seniors are graduating; others are looking forward to a summer vacation.

Canyon High School has been an instrumental tool in building a firm foundation for our lives. We bow in humbleness to the taxpayers, school-board, parents, and administrators for giving us, the young people of Canyon, such a beautiful place in which to build our futures. Mr. Miller and Mr. Gibson have worked very hard planning and struggling to have the school completed for the 1960-61 classes. Our excellent teachers help make our school what it is - one of the best in the Panhandle. I truly thank you all for dedicating your lives to showing us the road to a better and richer life.

Let us live the school creed: "I believe in Canyon High School as a place of opportunity. I believe in its reputation for honest work, fair play, and sincere interest in the youth of my community. I believe in the idea proclaimed in its motto, 'Knowledge, Loyalty, Honor, Courage, Service,' I believe in its worthy ideals; clean sportsmanship, high scholarships, true friendliness, and respect for others, obedience to law, and cordial cooperation with the faculty, administration, and student body. I, therefore, believe it my duty to my school to support it loyally and to defend it against all opposition."

The Eagle symbolizes our faith, hope, and aspirations which go hand in hand with youth. Truly, the Eagle is the fitting emblem of Canyon High School, inspiring us to soar to the great heights in life.

I salute you, students, for most of you have grown in wisdom, personality, and experience. I hope this 1960-61 "Soaring Wings" shows the advances we have made.

Truly,
Peggy Sue Hale

Superintendent

Joe A. Gibson

Joe A. Gibson is a familiar figure to the Canyon High students. His friendliness places him high in the hearts of his fellow workers and the students. Despite a busy schedule, the superintendent is not out of the students' reach. He has a real and personal interest in them as individuals.

James E. Miller, principal of Canyon High, is always striving to make our school one of the best in the Golden Spread. He sees to the smooth functioning of the activities involved in running Canyon High, and is ever alert to new teaching methods that make learning fascinating.

Principal

James E. Miller

Canyon Board of Education

No greater asset can be had in a community than its civic-minded citizens who are always willing to deny themselves personal pleasures in order to further the best interests of others. Realizing that this is true of our Board of Education, we are continually grateful to them for the hours they spend in their efforts to aid us. We know they are constantly "on the job" to make Canyon School System one of the very best.

Here we catch a glimpse of the group in a regular meeting discussing school matters with Superintendent Joe A. Gibson and Tax-Collector Lee Foster.

Counselor

Another first this year in Canyon High School is the addition of a Counselor to the Administration Staff.

Lawrence H. Roberts comes to us from Travis Junior High School in Amarillo where he taught ninth grade English. He has had eleven years' experience with students. Mr. Roberts now holds two certificates, those of a High School Teacher and a Counselor.

We feel that his guidance and counseling will be of untold benefit to Canyon High School students.

In that final pep rally before the game, the Cheerleaders urge students to give forth with louder yells.

Twirlers

Three twirlers led our band this year: Jo Hubbard, Patti Seymour, and Lois Harlan.

Just a friendly visit with the Hereford Whiteface Twirlers. Nothing like diplomacy!

Our Cheerleaders and Twirlers lend glamour to every football game of the year. Each girl did her bit which often meant working in cold weather and rain as she cheered the team on in victory or defeat.

Hereford spills Davis Price and Ronnie Harris in a decisive 28-0 victory for the Whitefaces.

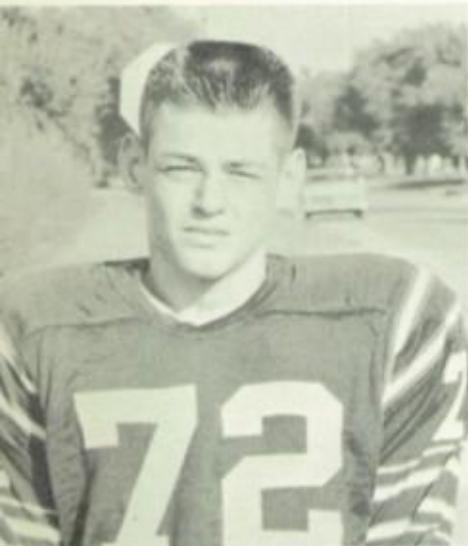

Bill Callarman, Gary Lee, and George Prichard clear the way while Ralph Cabe carries the ball against Hereford.

Jim Killingsworth is way out in front of the Friona Chiefs with Bill Callarman coming in behind. Eagles were victorious with the score 28 - 14.

Harry Lisle seems to be all alone on this play in the Dimmitt game. The Bobcats went on to win this one 28 - 12.

This ball is well on its way for two points more as Wayne Rutherford hooks it into the basket.

Ronny Harris leaps from 'way out to make this drag shot against the Phillips' Blackhawks.

Jim Killingsworth really has the jump on this Blackhawk as he gets the tip for the Eagles.

Up there all alone goes Wayne Rutherford for this jump shot against the Dumas Demons.

Getting off that floor against the Demons, Jim Glenn tries his luck at the hoop.

All eyes are on the ball as Harry Lisle flips one from the free throw line.

The Dimmitt Bobcats fail to stop Jim Glenn with this shot.

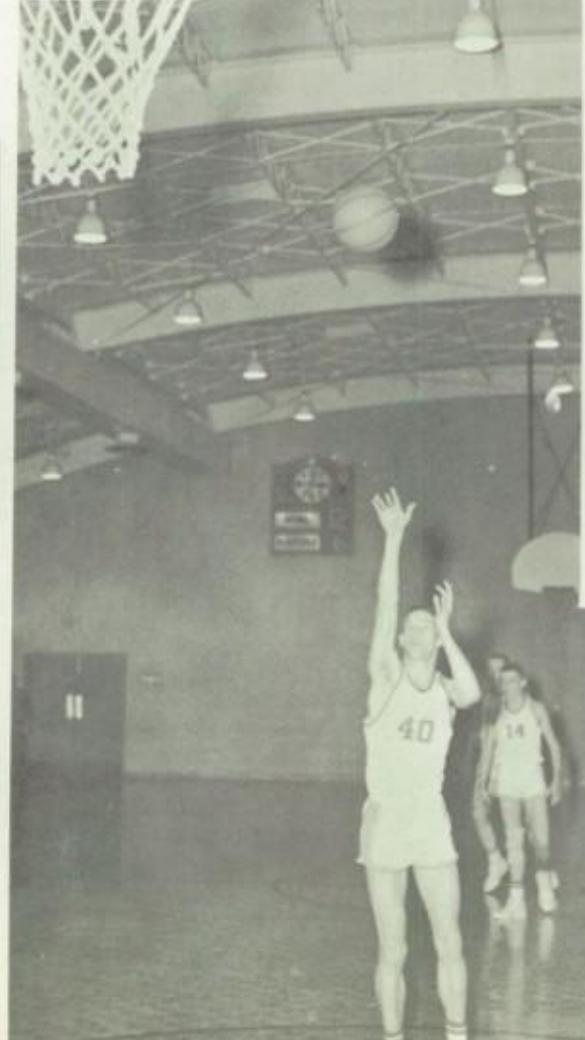

Here's one Bobcat that could not get high enough to block Wayne Rutherford's attempt to score.

Bob Begert is doing his best to score, but this Chief does not agree with him.

A little more stretch, Wayne Rutherford. We gotta have this goal!

Unhand Jim Killingsworth, Big Villain Chief! It's not fair to pull him down.

A little higher, Clark, get that ball!

Yes, Kathy, that free throw will run our score up. Take good aim! We need two points.

Patricia Salmon eyes that basket carefully as she sends that ball on its way against Happy.

Assistant Editors, Pat Abbott and Sally White.

The editors and assistant editors discuss features to be used in the 1960-61 annual.

Phil Pennington, assistant business manager.

Ronald Davis, photographer

Kerry Knorpp, business manager

Learning the art of photography is one of the objects of these staff members.

Working on an annual is sometimes back-breaking. Here Nancy and Peggy are selling subscriptions.

The 1960-61 staff is one of the largest ever organized in CHS. Members are Sally White, Kerry Knorpp, Ocine Chism, Nancy Breitling, Phil Pennington, Peggy Sue Hales, Patricia Abbott, Ronald Davis, and Janie Meyer.

Eagle's Tale Staff

Co-Editors, Peggy Sue Hales and Deanna Stocker, proudly show the first issue of the year's school paper. This is the first time that the Eagle's Tale has been published separately from the community paper, The Canyon News. Sponsor: Miss Mary Carter.

Staff members are as follows: Carolyn Milhoan, club reporter; Marita Gill, business manager; Ronald Davis, photographer; Peggy Sue Hales and Deanna Stocker, co-editors; Davis Price and Bob Haggard, sport writers.

Other helpers on the paper are pictured here. Seated: Alvin Foster, Pamela Richard, Carolyn Franklin, Mary Barger, Marilyn Roberts.

Standing: Chester Allen, Morris Steen, Bob Bellah, Travis Collins, D. L. Canada, Bill Callarman, Sue Fain, Beverly Richard, Norma Henderson.

Senior Play

"A Man Called Peter"

An inspirational play was presented by the Seniors of 1961 as a dedication of the new auditorium to a combined audience of about 950 people. It was the largest attendance of an indoor school function in the history of Canyon High. The play was counted a success by the director, Mrs. Lee Foster, the cast and stage crew. Many friendships were made through this activity that will last through the years.

Kay Jarnagin is a country girl attempting to become sophisticated to impress her boy friend, but Karyn seems to have her doubts about the wisdom of this plan.

"A howling success," is the term applied to the outcome of the Junior play by the large number who saw it. This judgement, no doubt, is the result of the frequent shrieks of laughter from the audience at the antics of the characters.

Don - you would probably be surprised to know how much I have thought of you for quite a while but how doesn't every girl? What can I say but that you are a wonderful dancing partner and a very lovable person? I'll never forget that night you got your eye hurted. I feel bad me almost as much as I did you.

Good Luck & be careful. Carly S.

Don, Don,
You are really a great
guy. I'd really have enjoyed knowing you and think a lot of you. I really do wish you success in the future and hope that we will be friends from now on.

Your Pal,
Dwight
McElvee

Don,
It's been lots of fun
this past year. Hope you get your license back this summer. Best of Luck always.
Jim Hording

Best of luck
to a real swell guy!
John Cook

Don,
It's been nice knowing you this year. Lots of luck in the future. You're a real cool guy.
Shelby Lee
